

The Suffolk W O N D E R:

OR, THE

ant, Facetious, and Merry DWARF of Bottesdale,

Surprizing Little
exceeds by far
able and weighty
of Much-
Essex, both in
also in Bulk,
Height; for
measures but
fix Inches
of his Foot
of his Head
is he no less
round in his Limbs are all
thick; yet he
much Activity,
any Man of this Year
he has had
(who was born
near Norwich,
but hale, and Woman) four
of which he was born
at Lavenham,
in Norfolk,
the Wonder of
When he came
he chose for
Trade of a
Watch-maker,
maintains his
gentle
Manager, and
d, and
all the
him.

Mr. Christopher Bullock, Watch and Clock-maker, in Bottesdale, in the County of Suffolk, 1755

not only
above
his Wife,
the Miss
more
high, but
Noble men
of Learning
it excellent
in the same; but must be remember'd to the gallant Exploit of John Cavendish, Esq; who,
the Second, Anno 1381, when the infamous the King in London, and being angry that the Bearer to the King, (then in Prefence his Distance, and not making his Approaches much Bustling arising therefrom, Sir Mayor of London, arrested Wat Tyler, and him, who being well stricken in Years, strength and Vigour, to dispatch him quite,
the Gentleman, who mortally wounded him.
of London were augmented with a Dagger; and,
his over-grown Rebel's Destruction equally belong'd the Haft, and to Cavendish the also Sir Thomas Cook, Knight, and Sir the first born at Lavenham, the other Natives and Neighbours of this County, of London; and, by God's Blessing on their great States. The latter is reported to have made for King Henry the Seventh, and making many roads, of which the King stood Surety (a sweet Perfume, no doubt, to so thrifty a Prince) and at another Time drank a dissolved Pearl, of many hundred Pounds Value, in an Health to the King.

The Road to Bottesdale, although but a small Market Town in itself, carries you from London through many beautiful Towns of Note, and Trade, and is as good, if not the best Road in England for the Number of Miles; and brings you to the famous Sea-Port Town of Yarmouth, so remarkable all over Europe for the Beauty and Safety of its fine Key.

The following is a Description of the measured Miles and Market Days.

From London to	M.	M. D.		M.	M. D.
Rumford	12	W	Bury St. Edmund	72	W.
Brentwood	18	Th.	Ixworth	78	F.
Ingastern	23	W.	Bottesdale	87	Th.
Chelmsford	29	F.	Schole-Inn	94
Braintree	40	W.	Harleston	101	W.
Halsted	47	F.	Bungay	108	Th.
Sudbury	56	S.	Beccles	114	S.
			Yarmouth	128	W. S.